session of Congress the Democrats will pass a resolution directing the Clerk, in making up the list of members elect to the Forty-sixth Cangress, to drop those who had taken advantage of the Supervisor Law. The effect of this would be of course to take away the prima facie right of certain successful Republican candidates. Just how this is to be done, however, in view of the Constitutional provision that each House shall be the judge of the qualifications of its own members, is not manifest. The Forty-fifth Congress can hardly, put an inhibition on the Forty-sixth Congress, and prescribe the qualifications of its members."

ECRETARY SHERMAN'S SPEECH AT HARRIS

SECRETARY SHERMAN'S SPECII AT HARRISBURG SATURDAY NIGHT.

HARRISBURG. November 3.—Secretary Sherman made a speech here last night. He said the rebellion had heen crushed, but the spirit which animated it had not been eradicated, and to-day millions of people in the South were denied their rights, a declaration which would be verified by the elections Tuesday night.

Ku-Klux marauders had roved over communities, driven negroes before them, and committed many murders for opinion's sake, and now as effective, but a milder sort of intimidation prevailed. For three weeks the several slates, the Democrate had been deforizing negroes to prevent them from voting their opinions.

Reference was made to the "Anderson-Sherman" letter, which was pronounced a forgery, known to prominent Democrats, who had suppressed the fact to his injury. Alluding to the cipher dispatches, the Secretary said the Democrats had endeavored to buy the Electoral votes of three States, and the people would never be satisfied until they got at the bottom of the villany. He hoped Congress would push the matter, and farred out all the guilty, and the result would no doubt, show more Democrating fraud.

Secretary Sherman discussed the finan-result/would/ no doubt, show more Demo-oratic fraud.

Secrelary Sherman discussed the finan-cial question. He was in favor of the largest possible amount of paper money that can be maintained at par with gold and silver coin. The Republicans were true Greenbackers, inasmuch as they be-lieved the greenback should be made as good as gold. He rocked the greenback in its cradle, and witnessed its growth into a great giant, and had respect for it. It had increased in value from 40 cents to 903, and on the first of January it would be worth as much as gold. Since the panie of 1873 and the passage of the Re-

have the purchasing power of the green-back made equal with that of gold. He said this country had more paper money than any other in the world, gauged by population. The difference between the ublican party and its opponents wa

Secretary Sherman closed by referring exultantly to the large increase of exports over imports, a sure indication of a returning prosperity.

DATTON, November 2.—A fracas occurred in a saloon on Market street, last evening, in which a man giving his name as James Wilson was arrested. An associate engaged with him in the affray made his escape. A number of postage stamps were found on Wilson, and it was ascertained that he had been disposing of them about the city in considerable quantities. He said that he had obtained postage stamps from his partner, whose name was Wm. Howard, and who was known as "Bill, the Peddler." Strict lookout was kept for Howard, and he was traced and arrested to-day by Officers Davy, Brunner and Ogier. He states that he is from Rochester, N. Y., and obtained the stamps in the course of trade through the country. Both men are young, not above 25 years, and are apparently reckless characters. Howard had some ten dollars in stamps upon his person when arrested, but it is believed he has concealed others that he had in his possession, as last evening he was seen to show a larce quantity, amounting to sev-ARREST OF SUSPICIOUS CHARACTERS, possession, as last evening he was seen to show a large quantity, amounting to sev-eral hundred dollars. Lester, of Memphis, left that city, with the intention of going East, in order to flee from the pestilence at that place. While at the depot, she intrusted the checking of her baggage to one P. H. Jones, with whom she had a slight acquaintance, at the same time pointing out a trunk of large size, stating that it contained her jewelry and other valuables, charging him to take extra precaution in having lift checked. Instead of doing this he gave her a bogus check for this part of her baggage. At the same time he checked it for this city, where he himself was located. The motion for a new trial in the case of F, G. Minor, convicted body-snatcher, was overruled to-day by Judge Updegraff, and the sentence to pay a fine of $100 and costs and to serve four months in the Work-house was ordered to be carried into effect immediately. Minor was accordingly taken to the Work-house this afternoon. In giving his decision the Judge said there was doubt in his mind about the guilt of the defendant, but he had been convicted by the jury, and the affidavits offered bearing upon the motion were not of such a character as to change the result before another jury, in all probability. New Orleans, La., November 2, 1878. To Hom. Wim. M. Evarts, Washingtom, D. C.:
Your dispatch of the 1st was received last evening. We do not know from whom the repeated demands from New Orleans, of which you speak, come. We do know that the reiterated statement that the Howard Association have a balance of $250,000 to distribute after the epidemic, to be absolutely untrue. We stopped contributions September 12, because we then saw that we had ample funds on hand and in sight to meet any probable and lawful demands that might be made upon us. Since that time, from pointsat which there was no fever, we have had demands upon us which have carried us under obligations $100,000 beyond calculations we had made, and which we could not have anticipated. We are to-day striving hard to meet these and other obligations and come out clear of debt. We have not yet paid the doctors who have so faithfully served us at home, though we hope yet to give them some partial recognition of their services. We have paid no attention to the repeated statements of disappointed individuals or associations, political, race, sectarian or otherwise, who have started reports of a large balance we were retaining, and who asked of us our funds for their distribution. Ignoring their queries, we have chosen to wait until our published report shows, as it will, the distribution we have made of moneys so generously sent us. We give you, as a representative of the General Government, this statement of facts.

LONDON, November 2.—The Daily Telegraph, commenting upon the dispatches from Philadelphia, about the fisheries dispute, says: "In a world where no two well informed people think alike en any given subject, why should the fact that Lord Salisbury and Secretary Evarts are unable to take quite the same view of this question, create in Philadelphia a profound sensation? Let the whole of the facts be my before the public and we are supported. ton, create in Transactions a protonic sensation? Let the whole of the facts be put before the public, and we are sure the men of common sense in both countries will soon arrive at a friendly agreement." There are no other comments on the subject in the daily or weekly press. There is not sufficient information published here to justify expression of opinion. All that is known publicly regarding the controversy has come from the United States. Municipal elections held throughout England and Wales yesterday were mostly contested on political rather than local issues.
